

NAME: Jenna

GENDER: Female

DATE OF BIRTH: April 30, 2022

Jenna was adopted from Meows Corner when she was a kitten but returned because of a move and financial hardship. Jenna had a scrape on her neck when she was returned to 4Paws which healed nicely. The fur is still returning to the site.

Jenna has grown into a wonderful, loving girl who still likes to play and interact with people. She gets along with most of the kitties in the foster room. Sometimes she gets picked on by the more rambunctious boys when she refuses their attempts to playfully engage her. Instead of roughhousing with the boys, Jenna gets the zoomies and runs up and down the tall cat tree where she frequently naps.

Jenna can be adopted into a home by herself or with another low-key kitty. She should do well with respectful children and friendly, low-energy dogs.
