

NAME: Paco

GENDER: Male

DATE OF BIRTH: January 30, 2024

FUR LENGTH: Short

COLOR: Black and white

Purrsonality: Paco is a social and happy boy that likes other cats and people. He is cautious initially but after he warms up to you, he is a great companion cat.

Children? Paco not been tested with young children so we assess he would do best with older kids.

Other cats? Paco likes other cats but can go as a single kitty.

Dogs? Given Paco's background we assess he may not enjoy being around dogs.

Background: Paco was found on a stoop of an apartment building off Georgia Avenue in a bad part of Washington, DC. He was in a carrier and left with no food or water. A concerned neighbor called a cat rescue network which operates in the area and Paco was taken into their custody to ensure his safety. He stayed with one of the rescues' fosters and was recently transferred to Meows Corner to find a good home.

Medical or special care notes: Paco has had vaccinations for rabies and distemper, is microchipped, and has been neutered. He has tested negative for FeLV and FIV. He is eating Fancy Feast classic pate and Purina One kibble.
