She likes catnip, and prefers treats and toys with catnip. She likes to sleep in the kids’ bedrooms and have a cat house to sleep in, or she will sleep in bed with them. She loves soft blankets. She will wait for you and greet you every morning. She likes to stretch out and show you her belly when she wants attention, and loves belly rubs. She is timid and cautious when exploring, and does not like loud sounds. She is brave and confident when it comes to jumping from place to place. She never misses and is graceful. She likes to watch cat TV, and likes birds, squirrels, and fish. She is the sweetest cat and is never a bother, she is well behaved. She loves to scratch on her scratching post, and will let you clip her nails. She does not scratch or bite. She likes to look out the window. Kicking pillows with catnip are her favorite. She has a tiny meow and is very sweet.”
